as much time as needed to familiarize themselves with the code for the lawyers. Would you then drop your opposition to the bill itself and enjoin us on this bill in getting it through? If we went with the 1977.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Well, I want to think about that at least three minutes. I'd like to talk to some people on this body.

SENATOR DECAMP: Could we have about a five minute recess and discuss it with various individuals.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh, would you like to speak on this ?

SENATOR MARSH: I'd like to ask for a five minute recess.

SENATOR CARPENTER: May I suggest an alternate. I think everybody wants to do the right thing. I don't think there is any question about it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh. Are you asking for unanimous consent to have a five minute recess?

SENATOR MARSH: I yield to Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I'd like to move that we hold the bill over until Monday. In the meantime hold it's present position. Everybody talk to however he wants to and when we come back Monday let's attempt to move the bill one way or the other. I don't think nobody is going to be put in a bad position. We are talking about three years from now. Not one year, or two years, three years.

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas did you want to speak on the amendment. That is all that is before the body at this time.

SENATOR SYAS: No I want to speak on the bill. But I'm against holding it over because I think we should finish it because I think Senator Fellman has got a motion for Monday and I think we've got some other problems.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis do you want to speak on the amendment?

SENATOR RICHARD LEWIS: I'd like to speak only to Senator Carpenter's suggestion that we do hold it. I'm opposed to this bill at the moment. And I don't know that much about it. And maybe never will. But I am opposed to the terrific pressure that is being put on by lobby groups. I resent that. I think I can make up my mind possibly without the direction I'm getting from the back of the room. And I'm ready to do anything with the bill but advance it.

PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion on Senator Carpenter's move to hold this bill over until Monday? Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: What did we do with the motion that was pending?

PRESIDENT: Senator Luedtke, I believe a motion to set to a time certain has priority.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: To a time certain Monday. Then we are going to take it up definitely Monday with that amendment. It will be the first thing on the agenda for Monday then? That takes precedence?
